

Grüß Gott in Freising

Wir laden Sie ein, unsere Stadt zu erkunden. In einem Spaziergang oder mit dem Rad. Für beides ist der 13,5 Kilometer lange Rundweg gleichermaßen geeignet.

Er zeigt eine Stadt, die seit Jahrhunderten nicht nur ein Zentrum für Kultur und Wissenschaft ist, sondern auch als Garten- und Rosenstadt einen Namen hat. 2010 wurde zudem auf dieser Strecke der Freisinger Baumweg eröffnet – mit dreidimensionalen zum Teil seltenen Baumarten.

1 Am Bahnhof
Der Weg durch die Stadt beginnt am Bahnhof, von dem aus es nur ein paar Schritte in die Altstadt sind. Das quirlige Leben hier gibt Auskunft darüber, dass Freising heute ein blühender Standort von Wirtschaft und Forschung ist.

Auf dem Domberg

Das Muss für jeden Freising-Besucher. Neben dem Dom mit seiner berühmten Hallekrypta und seinen Kunstschatzen gibt es hier das Diözesanmuseum, mit der größten kirchlichen Kunstsammlung Deutschlands. Museum zur Zeit wegen Umbau geschlossen.

3 In der Altstadt
Der barocke Asamsaal in der ehemaligen bischöflichen Hochschule, die gotische Pfarrkirche St. Georg, das Rathaus im späthistorischen Stil und viele alte Bürgerhäuser mit ihren schönen Fassaden bilden die Kulisse für einen lohnenswerten Altstadtbummel.

4 Im Oberdieck-Garten
Der Oberdieckgarten ist eine Versuchs- und Demonstrationsanlage der Forschungsanstalt für Gartenbau. Gartenfreunde finden hier Duft- und Arzneipflanzen sowie viele interessante Neuzüchtungen.

5 Auf der Kuppe des Weihenstephaner Berges
Die Kirche der ehemaligen Prämonstratenserabtei Neustift wurde von den berühmtesten Künstlern des bayrischen Rokoko ausgestattet. Johann Baptist Zimmermann etwa schuf die Deckenfresken, die Altarfiguren stammen von Ignaz Günther. In den Gebäuden des Klosters selbst ist heute das Landratsamt untergebracht.

Der Freisinger Rosenweg EIN ROSENPAZIERGANG DURCH DIE ALTSTADT

"Die Rose prägt seit Jahren das Stadtbild von Freising", heißt es anerkennend in der Urkunde, die Freising vor beinahe 10 Jahren zur "Rosenstadt" kürt. Eine Reihe spezieller Strauch-, Beet- und Edelrosen, die nach Freising benannt wurden, zeugen von der Aufmerksamkeit, die Freising und seine Bürger diesem edlen Gewächs widmen. Ein eigener Rosenweg führt durch die romantischen Gassen der Altstadt und zeigt Freising einmal von einer ganz anderen, blühenden Seite:

10 An der Plantage
Früher eine Waldbauschule, deren Reste noch erkennbar sind, hat sich hier mittlerweile eine idyllische Gastwirtschaft mit Biergarten etabliert. Von der aus man den Walderlebnispfad mit seinen vielen Attraktionen begehen kann.

11 An der Wallfahrtskirche Wies
Vom "Bärenbrunnen" an der Kammergasse 1 beginnen attraktive Kletterrosen im Mittleren Graben (mit Amtsgartengarten) 2 zu Kirchgasse/Rindermarkt, wo von Rosen gesäumte Bänke im Schatten

Culture & Nature A CIRCULAR CYCLING AND WALKING TOUR

Welcome to Freising!
We invite you to explore our city on a walking or cycle tour. The 13.5-kilometre route is equally suitable for both methods. Discover a city that has been a centre of culture and science for centuries, but is also known as a city of horticulture and roses.

4 Oberdieck Garden
Oberdieck Garden is the research and show garden of the Horticultural Research Institute, with scented and medicinal plants and a host of interesting new species to delight garden fans.

5 On Weihenstephan Hill
Relics of the original Benedictine abbey include a Baroque garden pavilion or "Saletti" and the ruins of St. Corbinian's Chapel with St. Corbinian's Spring. Weihenstephan Brewery, the oldest in the world, offers an attractive tree-shaded spot for hikers to take a break.

6 At Weihenstephan Campus
The expansive campus of Weihenstephan's teaching and research centre is dotted with modern sculptures that create a fascinating sculpture park between lecture halls, academic institutes and library. The artists range from Alf Lechner to Fritz König and Leo Kornbrust.

7 The Old Quarter
The glorious Baroque Asamsaal hall of the former Episcopal College, the Gothic church of St. George, the historicist-style Town Hall and many old townhouses with beautiful facades set the scene for a rewarding stroll through the Old Quarter.

8 The Show Gardens
The shrubbery show gardens of Weihenstephan University are primarily used for plant selection. Open to the public, they are a magnet for garden enthusiasts, presenting a vast array of different species and variety of forms in a blaze of colour.

8 Forest Nature Trail
Here visitors can observe and compare over 60 different types of trees and shrubs.

9 Schafhof
The building, with its striking curved roof, was built in the early 19th century to house the royal herd of merino sheep. Today it is home to Upper Bavaria's European Artists' Centre and offers an extensive programme of events that attract artists and visitors from far and wide.

10 At the Plantation
Once a forest tree nursery, the remnants of which can still be seen, the site now houses an idyllic inn with beer garden, a starting-point for the Forest Nature Trail and its many attractions.

11 Wies Pilgrimage Church
In the Church of the Scoured Saviour, a host of votive offerings and images bear witness to the former statue of this pilgrimage destination at the gates of Freising.

12 Neustift
The church of the former Premonstratensian Abbey of Neustift was created by the most important artists of the Bavarian rococo movement: Johann Baptist Zimmermann painted the ceiling frescoes, while the altar figures are by Ignaz Günther. The monastery premises now house the rural district office.

13 The Old Quarter
The glorious Baroque Asamsaal hall of the former Episcopal College, the Gothic church of St. George, the historicist-style Town Hall and many old townhouses with beautiful facades set the scene for a rewarding stroll through the Old Quarter.

Kultur & Natur - ein Rundweg zum Radeln und Wandern entlang der Freisinger Sehenswürdigkeiten

The certificate which conferred the title of "Rose City" on Freising almost ten years ago states approvingly that "roses have been a prominent feature in Freising for years". Many special varieties of bush, carpet and hybrid tea rose have been named after Freising, documenting the special status of these elegant blooms for the city and its inhabitants. A "rose walk" leads through the romantic lanes of the Old Quarter and presents Freising from a new side of bloom and blossoms.

The path then follows the course of Fürstendamm, passes Mohrenbrunnen fountain towards Ottostrasse and leads to further rose beds surrounding the bust of Prince-Bishop Konrad Freiherr von Schriffenberg 3.

The tour of the Old Quarter finishes at the figure of a rose-decked bear amid a colourful riot of roses at the square in front of the railway station 5.

From the "Bear Fountain" at Kammergasse 1, attractive climbing roses at Mitterer Graben (with Amtsgartengarten gardens) 2 accompany the route to Kirchgasse and Rindermarkt, where rose-fringed benches in the shade of the Church of St. George invite passers-by to stop for a while.

The path continues along Ziegelgasse, Hauptstrasse and Bahnhofstrasse, past the Arpjogarten gardens and colourful rose beds in front of the Vintzentinum, before arriving at the idyllic rose gardens at Fürstendamm 3.
